

CORONER PROBES MYSTERY IN DEATH OF JEAN HARLOW'S MATE

NO EARLY RUSH FOR REGISTRATION HERE

Registration Of Voters Of City For Fall Starts

No Rush To Polls During Morning—Expect Increase Later In Day

ALL CITY VOTERS MUST REGISTER

Second Registration Date Is September 20, And
Third, October 8

This is Registration Day in New Castle, the first of three such days for the purpose of qualifying voters for the general election on November 8th. The second registration day is on September 20 and the third and last day is October 8. All voters of all parties who expect to vote on November 8 must register on one of the three days mentioned. The fact that a voter was registered and cast his ballot in the spring primary means nothing. This is a new registration.

The first registration period eight o'clock to ten. Daylight Savings time saw but a few citizens get registered, due no doubt to the fact that store and office workers were on their way down town before the registration booths opened. The second period is from twelve noon to three o'clock. Daylight Savings Time and the third and last period of the day is from four o'clock until ten o'clock tonight. Daylight Savings Time. The same hours will prevail on the second registration day which is September 20 and on the third and last registration day which is October 8. Eastern Standard time will prevail. The voters who fail to register today and is out of the city or sick today and the next two registration days will be unable to get registered. In order to get a special registration at the Court House the voter must swear that he "was out of the city or confined to the house on all these days."

Registrars this year are supplied with transfer blanks showing the name and address of the voters who moved from other precincts since the last registration. This has not been done before. Another new blank is the challenge affidavit blank which permits challenges of illegal registrations. These must be filled out and sworn to when a challenge is made.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa New observed a number of people out late last evening covering up tomato plants and flowers to protect them from a possible frost. It seemed cold enough for one late evening and while the temperature got down near that point, no frost was evident in the city this morning.

* If someone had told Pa New one week ago that today the weather would be as cool as it is, Pa New would have guffawed. Remember how hot the days were?

When traffic was delayed at Jefferson and North streets last evening by a stalled automobile, Pa New saw two women drivers wink to each other and heard one murmur, "Man driver!"

Operators of the street cars had the cars heated this morning, for the first time in some months. And a little heat didn't feel half bad to those who were on the cars early in the day.

Daylight savings time seems to be of little value at the present time. Most folks are obliged to get up before the sun is doing any effective work, and electric lights have to be used as pinch hitters.

Workmen are erecting a brick house on the McKee place, about six miles north of town on the New

NEW ARMAMENT RACE OF NATIONS IS FEARED

(International News Service)
NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, England, Sept. 8.—Arthur Henderson, former British minister of foreign affairs and president of the world disarmament conference, declared today the arms parley would meet "disaster" if Germany deserted its sessions, as she has threatened to do if not granted arms equality.

PARIS, Sept. 8.—A new armament race among the nations of Europe may result if Germany attempts to build up her machinery of defense.

according to opinion expressed in well-informed circles here today. While Premier Herriot refused to let the situation grow out of Germany's demand for arms quality disturb his habitual tranquillity, there was a growing tendency to regard the German move as an effort to create an incident with France.
Germany's aim, according to this school of belief, is to open the way for re-arming regardless of consequences rather than to bring about a general reduction in armaments by the former allied powers.

First Day Enrollment In High Schools Shows Increase Of 235 Students

Enrollment figures compiled in the office of Superintendent C. C. Green show that the enrollment of the New Castle schools for the first day was 10,657, an increase of 125 over the first day of 1931. Of the total this year there is a decrease of 110 in the elementary grades and an increase of 235 in the High Schools, making a net increase of 125.

In the Croton, Pollock, Terrace Avenue, and Mahoning elementary schools, there were increases shown. The decrease was spread out over the other elementary schools. The total will undoubtedly show a daily increase for a week or two and again at mid-term will show another increase.

Crowded Rooms
Crowded conditions exist in a number of schools, especially in the Senior High School. One room in North Street Junior High has 50 pupils, one in the McGill School 66, one in Oak Street 51, and three in Pollock more than fifty each. Washington Junior High School shows a decrease due probably to the fact that the Neshannock Township pupils have not entered yet.
During the first week of school there is always a daily increase in enrollment. This is due to a number of reasons. Some people do not get back from vacation in time for the opening of school, some youngsters cause Ineligible

Norman Martin, New Castle, will file his withdrawal at the state elections bureau as a Democratic presidential elector. Judge Martin is an officer and director of the First National Bank of Lawrence County and under the federal constitution is ineligible to serve as a presidential elector.

Warren Van Dyke, chairman of the Democratic state committee, said that he would make a nomination to fill the vacancy before Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt leaves on his western tour next Monday. Electors are named by either the nominee for president or vice president upon recommendation of the state committee.

Judge Gawthrop Plans To Study Senate Proposal

PENSION OF $2,000

Senate Investigating Committee Would Like To Have Gawthrop
Act As Counsel

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Judge Robert S. Gawthrop, of the superior court, is not anxious to become chief counsel of the Public Service Commission investigating committee.
The superior court jurist returned to his home last night, after arriving from Europe. He gave no definite answer as to whether he would take the post or not. He told Senator William S. Rial, chairman of the committee, he would take the matter under consideration and give his decision later.

"I shall study the offer to be chief counsel and then make known my attitude. I can say now that upon my retirement from the bench next January I have made certain commitments for my future," Judge Gawthrop said today.

Would Lose Pension
"As the matter now stands," the jurist continued, "the offer of the position as counsel to the committee does not appear to be especially appealing."

France Extends German Note To U. S. Government

State Department Heads Admit France Has Passed
Arms Equality
Note On

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—State Department officials today admitted for the first time France has transmitted to the American government a copy of the German Aide Memoire demanding arms equality with the rest of the world.

The French copy was handed to Ambassador Walter Edge in Paris, and has not been received here yet. The French government transmitted the note without comment, and the United States presumed it was passed on merely for the information of the American government, officials said.

State Department officials declined to make further comment. Official admission that Ambassador Edge had been handed a copy of the German note by the French government evoked new speculation over reports that France intends to draw America into the discussions of the Versailles treaty over Germany's threat to withdraw from the League of Nations disarmament conference unless granted arms equality.

Third Party Plan By Drys Destined As Hopeless Fight

Fail To Enthuse Any Outstanding National Character To Head Third Party

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—A final battle to commit the organized drys of the nation to a third party movement in the presidential campaign was opened here today as leaders gathered for two meetings which may chart the course of the drys in the fall campaign.

The leaders who demand that the drys organizations cooperate in a third party movement apparently were waging a hopeless fight because of their inability to obtain an outstanding national character to head the movement.
The executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League gathered for a two day meeting with the Board of Strategy of the conference of organizations supporting the Eighteenth Amendment scheduled to meet Friday night.

Patrolman Held For Manslaughter

Bittner, manager of a local chain store, while escorting Bittner to the lockup for loitering, was ordered held for court on a manslaughter charge today following a coroner's jury probe yesterday. Cochran, who had pleaded self-defense, will continue suspended pending outcome of his trial, according to Mayor Robert Griffith.

Food Shortages In Soviet Towns Bring Outbreak

Trouble In Textile Districts
Of Russia Is Revealed
In Reports

CENSORSHIP HIDES
FACTS IN TROUBLE

Five Year Plan Claims Fail
To Enthuse Russian
Peasants

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, Sept. 8.—An outbreak of serious disorders resulting from shortage of food in the towns of Ivanovo and Voznesensk in the Soviet textile district was revealed in reports received here today.

Hungry workers looted and burned stores, carrying away all movable supplies under a hail of fire from G. P. U. troops.

Censorship Established
Eye-witness accounts of the disorders reached Moscow despite a censorship clamped down on news from the isolated district.
The food shortage provoked a strike at Ivanovo in April and the present outbreak appears even more serious. It is believed to be a serious runner for a long, serious winter when the worst food conditions in years coincide with "victorious" completion of the five year plan.

It is no secret that wide masses of workers and peasants are bitter and disillusioned and are responding but feebly to the government's static claims that hardships have been overcome and the five year plan pushed through to glorious completion.

Curtis To Open State Campaign

Will Speak On Tariff Issue
In Pennsylvania
Meeting

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Vice President Charles Curtis, who will open the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania despite the objection of party leaders to his dry stand, may enlarge his speaking tour in that state.

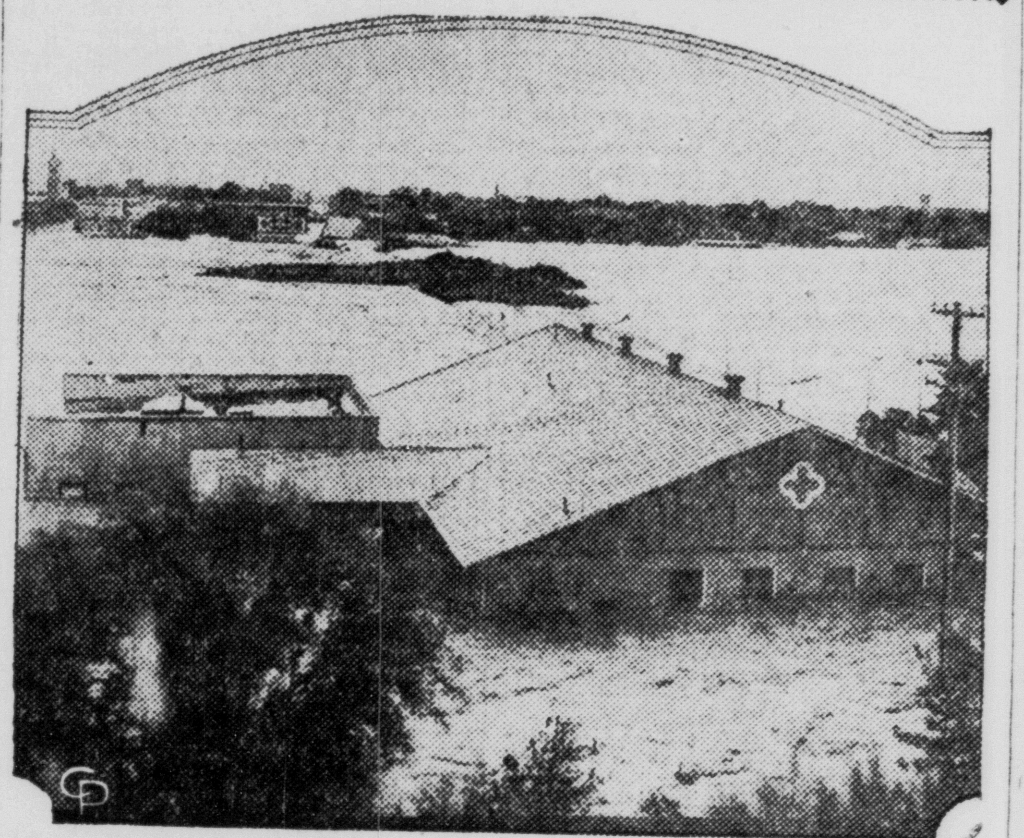

The vice-president will receive an invitation to speak at a county fair in Green county. It was announced at the office of Senator Reed today. The invitation was transmitted by local leaders who guaranteed a crowd of 10,000.

The threatened rift over the vice-president's opening of the campaign on Saturday at Fogelsville apparently had been averted, following the visit of state chairman Edward Martin and James M. Hazlett, Philadelphia leader, to the White House.

Both assured President Hoover that the situation in Pennsylvania today is far better than at the same time four years ago. They predicted an overwhelming vote for the Hoover-Curtis ticket.

Martin indicated that Vice President Curtis will be expected to talk upon the tariff and avoid prohibition. Hazlett said frankly that they want "an industrial and economic address" from the vice-president.
Curtis is enroute to Washington from Kansas, where he was called to attend the funeral of a relative.

Assert Smith Ready To Talk

Reports Indicate Silence
Since Chicago Convention To Be Broken

GUESSERS SAY HE WILL BOOST TICKET

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Al Smith is about ready to declare himself. Silent since the Chicago convention, where he experienced considerable humiliation, the former governor will make his position crystal clear concerning the national, state and municipal Democratic tickets in the November election.

Unless all the signs fail, he will give his blessing to the Roosevelt-Garner ticket, endorse Col. H. H. Lehman for the governorship of New York, and perhaps announce his support of Mayor Joseph V. McKee for the mayoralty.

This is what his friends expect. For the past few days, in fact, since the Democratic resignation of Mayor "Jimmy" Walker, Smith has been holding a series of conferences with those upon whose advice he was wont to reply in his own campaigns. Almost without exception they have advised today to adopt such a course, and thus put an end to the speculation and uncertainty concerning his position.

Former Mayor Of Youngstown Held For Grand Jury

Former Mayor William G.
Reese, Held For Assault To Kill An Aged Woman

(International News Service)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 8.—Charged with assault to kill on the accusations by his alleged victim, William G. Reese, 48, former mayor of Youngstown, today was awaiting action of the grand jury in connection with a reported attack of Mrs. Anna Wokok, 77.

Police were ready to release Reese as a suspect on the theory that the woman probably injured herself in a fall from a ladder while hanging curtains, when suddenly she murdered faintly "Billy did it."

Arraigned shortly after being served with the warrant, Reese pleaded not guilty and bond was fixed at $5,000. He said he found the door locked when he went to the woman's home yesterday and heard her moaning for help inside.

Policeman Claims Bootlegging Ring Got Stolen Loot

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Sept. 8.—Additional arrests were looked for today as the result of startling revelations by Charles Gram, former Erie police officer, that a large ring of local bootleggers acted as receivers for loot valued at $3,000 taken from two local warehouses during the past year.

Sugar, malt and hops comprised the loot. Gram, employed as a watchman for the two warehouses, handed out the loot as cars drove into alleys beside the buildings.

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 8.—The secret that lay behind the suicide of Paul Bern, screen executive and husband of the platinum blonde, Jean Harlow, may be disclosed to a coroner's jury today.

After an airplane ride across the country, Henry Bern, brother of the dead executive, held a midnight conference with Miss Harlow and declared that "I want no secrecy veiling the matter of my brother's death."

At the same time it was learned that Dr. Edward B. Jones, now in Honolulu, specialist and personal physician to Paul Bern, had held a lengthy radio telephone conversation with Louis B. Mayer, film executive.

Bar Happy Marriage
He learned from friends that Paul Bern's fears and worries over his physical condition, and the fixed belief it would bar a happy marriage with the beautiful actress, led

Mrs. Rudy Vallee Changes Her Mind

Leaves Reno And Arrives In San Francisco—Differences Adjusted

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—"Just a little family squabble—all patched up!"

Out-bound from Reno, where she had stopped, changed her mind about a divorce and skipped out on the next train, Mrs. Fay Webb Vallee, wife of Rudy Vallee, vaudeville radio singer, crowned this greeting today in her native California, eagerly awaiting a reunion with her sonneter husband.

Disembarking from a Reno train at San Francisco, the vivacious young actress, radiant in a pale green ensemble, was escorted by a husky, six-foot officer of the law.

"Meet my father—Chief of Police Clarence E. Webb of Santa Monica," she smiled.

Chief Webb had been visiting his daughter in New York when the marital rift occurred. So Mrs. Vallee and dad made the Reno trip together, and both are leaving San Francisco tonight for the parent's Los Angeles county home.

The national ear will now be smote with raucous sounds and loud, and folks will gather here and there in knots and flocks and crowds. The open season now is on for windy going skates, who wave their arms the while they praise their favorite candidates. They tell you of their early life, when they knew how to plow and do they throw the sob stuff in, they do my boy, and home. They tell you how he rose to fame by treating people fair and then proceed to talk at length upon the village square. Ah me, ah me, the time is here when orators make way and candidates are on the grid, it's 71 today.

ACQUIT LATROBE MAN ON SLAYING CHARGE

Jury Deliberates For Only One Hour

Former Police Lieutenant Found Not Guilty In Death Of Wife

WITNESSES TELL OF SUICIDE THREATS

(International News Service) GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8.—Thomas Griffin, former lieutenant on the Latrobe police force, was acquitted of the murder of his wife on June 14 by a jury which deliberated only one hour here early today.

The not guilty verdict climaxed a lengthy night session of Judge Copeland's court which sustained the defense's objection to the admission of the testimony of Mrs. Jennie Foster Burkhardt, of Latrobe, star state witness.

Griffin, who took the stand in his own defense and denied killing his wife with his service revolver, heard the verdict at 1:45 a. m. Besides Griffin, the defense introduced numerous witnesses who testified that Mrs. Griffin made suicide threats prior to the discovery of her dead body beside an ironing board in her home.

The state's claim that Griffin's service revolver was found near the woman's body was disputed by six witnesses who swore it was discovered in another room.

Mrs. Burkhardt, whose disappearance threatened to delay the trial for a while, was found here yesterday. When produced in court, her testimony was opposed by the defense, whose objection was upheld by the court.

Relief Group In Pittsburgh Found Playing Politics

Displace Ward Relief Association By Welfare Board For Playing Favoritism

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8.—As an aftermath to alleged political favoritism in the distribution of government flour to the needy, the twenty-first ward relief association today was displaced by the family welfare fund which will take over distribution of all flour in the district.

S. E. Clancy, director of the emergency association, announced the change which follows allegations that the ward relief group had barred flour for ballots in the last elections and had distributed flour only to favored partisans among the needy.

Clancy said that the inquiry into affairs of others of 133 groups handling the distribution of flour in Pittsburgh and Allegheny county would continue.

MAY DISCLOSE SECRET BEHIND BERN'S SUICIDE

him to kill himself as "the only way out."

From the office of Coroner Frank Nance came information that an autopsy by Dr. Frank Webb, county surgeon, disclosed a physical condition which further verified statements of Bern's physicians that he had sought advice and help from them in his quest for a happy married life. The autopsy showed also that Bern was free from disease of any kind.

Dr. Jones was understood to have given Mayer information which may be presented to the coroner's jury today.

Mayer disclosed that Henry Bern and Miss Harlow had been closeted together for an hour alone at the home of her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Marino Bello, about midnight, discussing the secret reasons for Paul Bern's act.

Woman Not To Testify

Mayer said: "Miss Harlow's condition is far worse than it was the day before yesterday. Henry Bern's resemblance to her dead husband caused her to break down and cry bitterly."

"Miss Harlow is in no condition to be moved and it will be utterly impossible for her to testify at the inquest," declared her physician.

Several physicians, including an associate of Dr. Jones, who knew Bern's secret in life and had tried to help him, were at the Bello home, and this secret was discussed with the brother under circumstances as dramatic as any ever presented by Paul Bern on the screen.

In his radio telephone conversation from Honolulu, Dr. Jones was declared to have given Mayer in Hollywood "confidential information for the coroner's jury," and to have expressed belief that with this information in Mayer's hands, the inquest would be a mere formality.

That all doubt concerning the motive for Bern's suicide would be cleared up.

First Wife Living

New York, Sept. 8.—A will that has been tucked away for many years revealed today that in 1920 Paul Bern, now dead by his own hand, left most of his wealth to "my wife, Dorothy Millette."

Existence of this document of the past added a new surprise to the identification of Dorothy Millette, referred to heretofore as simply an "old sweetheart" of the film executive.

She was a beautiful blonde and she was known to all of Bern's intimates. And so when he went one day to the office of his friend and lawyer, Henry Uttal, at 521 5th Ave., and said he wanted his will drawn up, Uttal was not surprised that "Mrs. Bern" was the beneficiary.

Uttal admitted today that the will still is in his office, that it was signed Aug. 30, 1920 and that it "designated" Bern's wife. But from another source, it was learned that the will adequately provided for Dorothy Millette, in fact, left practically everything to her.

Known As Wife

Uttal recalled Dorothy Millette well. She was a blonde he said, but not the platinum blonde type of Jean Harlow, Bern's widow.

"They came to my house often," the lawyer recalled, "and I knew her as Paul's wife. All his other friends knew her as his wife, also. There never was any suspicion in my mind that they might not be married."

"She was a very pretty woman: Very intelligent."

Uttal received a letter from Bern a week after the latter's marriage to Jean Harlow. It told of his happiness; related that he had found the perfect wife.

"I had no idea of what had become of his first wife," the lawyer said, "but in view of his marriage to Miss Harlow I assumed that she was dead. Paul made no mention of her."

May Be New Will

Hollywood, Sept. 8.—Paul Bern, self-slain screen executive and "student of death," may have made a new will before his death. Attorney Mendel Silberberg declared today.

At first it was believed that Bern had not changed an old will which bequeathed $75,000 life insurance and real property to blood relatives, but Silberberg said today he had learned that Bern consulted another attorney about two months ago, after he had married Jean Harlow, platinum blonde of the screen.

Eclipse Tragedy

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Anna M. Hunt.

Mrs. Anna M. Hunt, widow of George Hunt, one of Lawrence County's oldest residents and a member of one of the best known pioneer families of the district, passed away Wednesday, September 7, 1932, at 6:50 p. m., at her home in Neshannock township, near King's Chapel, following an extended illness.

Mrs. Hunt had been a lifelong resident of the district in which she died and was widely known, highly respected and loved by all those who knew her. Her passing leaves a vacancy in the life of her community that cannot easily be filled.

She was born April 1, 1841, in Lawrence county, the daughter of William and Letta Davidson Brown and was 91 years of age. She had been quite active in spite of her advanced years until the illness, which ultimately caused her death.

She was a member of the King's Chapel M. E. church. She was married February 11, 1867, to George Hunt, who preceded her in death October 26, 1895, almost thirty-seven years ago. Her three children preceded her in death. She leaves a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, September 10, 1932, at 3 p. m. D. S. T., in King's Chapel M. E. church. Interment will be made in King's Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary S. Carson.

Mrs. Mary Sophia Carson, aged 79, widow of Joseph Carson, passed away at her home 1806 Wilson avenue at 7 a. m. Thursday, September 8, 1932. Her death was sudden, although she had not been in the best of health recently.

Mrs. Carson was born in Butler county in 1853, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner. She had spent most of her life in this city, where she was well known and highly respected.

She was a member of St. Mary's church. She leaves the following children, Louis, Joseph and Peter Carson and Mrs. Frank Doyle, all of this city and Mrs. Thomas Davis of Cleveland, O., and two brothers, Xavier Gardner of Butler and Loyola Gardner of New Castle.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, September 10, 1932, at 10 a. m. in St. Mary's church. Interment will be made in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Payne Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora-bell Payne, wife of Charles Payne, of Canonsburg, were held Wednesday at 2:30 from the home of T. J. Maxwell, 1506 East Washington St., with Rev. J. Robert Swager, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church officiating.

Mrs. N. E. Phillips and Mrs. Walter Kirkwood sang "Jesus Cares" and "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Palbearers were Vincent Shoafi, T. J. Maxwell, N. E. Phillips, Chas. Lutton, James Clare and Charles Parks. Interment was made in the Greenwood cemetery.

Time Of Funeral

Funeral services for Harry Edgerton, who died at the Lawrence County Home Wednesday, will be held at 8 o'clock this evening from the Ritchie Funeral Home, South Mill street, with Harry Pitzer of the International Bible school officiating.

Friday morning interment will be made in Little Beaver cemetery.

Roosevelt Claims Party Not Split

Governor Roosevelt Says Democrats Will Present Solid Front In November

(International News Service) ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is convinced the wounds of the Democratic national convention have been healed and that the party will present a united front at the November election in every state, including New York, his advisors revealed today.

The governor is not worrying about the situation caused by the resignation of James J. Walker as mayor of New York, and the reports that Tammany may "knife" the national ticket, according to his close friends. He feels that whatever falling off there may be in the New York City vote for the national ticket will be more than offset by the swing to the Roosevelt-Garner banner throughout up-state New York.

Roosevelt is confident the voters of New York state will give him the same support for president as they did for governor two years ago when he was swept back into office by 750,000, the greatest majority in the state's history.

Speaking yesterday at Rutland, Vermont, Governor Roosevelt vigorously denied that the Democratic party is split, and laid the blame for such reports squarely on the Republican leaders.

DONEGAN, LUTZ AT PITTSBURGH EVENT

Two New Castle postal employees were present to hear Harry L. Wein-stock, Philadelphia, leader in national postal clerks' affairs, speak at the Pittsburgh post office last night to 100 assembled post office employees of the district. Wein-stock was being greeted on his return east from a western convention.

Thomas A. Donegan, state secretary of the Pennsylvania Federation of Post Office Clerks, and Clare Lutz, member of the local branch, attended.

Texas—and the balance of the country as well—could take things a lot easier if it would just make up its mind one way or the other about the Fergusons.—The Atlanta Constitution.

Rash Turned to Eczema. Itched Terribly. Healed by Cuticura.

"I was troubled about four years with a rash on my face and neck which turned to weeping eczema. The terrible itching caused me to scratch, and when I did it festered and scaled over. Even my clothing irritated my neck, and I was afraid to use water on my face, due to the terrible burning. I could not sleep, could not go anywhere, and even missed a month of school at a time."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample of each. Later I purchased four cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and now my trouble is completely healed." (Signed) Miss Dorothy Kuhf, 218 E. Union Blvd., Bethlehem, Pa.

MEANING OF THE CAMPAIGN TO THE PEOPLE

H. S. LYDICK of Indiana county, organizer and secretary of the Tax Justice League of Pennsylvania, puts the case in a nutshell when he says that we can afford to "play politics" in times of prosperity, but that in days of adversity a Presidential campaign should be considered solely from the standpoint of business.

It is for this reason he is strongly in favor of the Republican ticket. "President Hoover," he says, "has outlined a clear-cut, definite plan for removing the depression. A part of that plan is a reduction in the cost of government and the lifting of the unjust burden of taxation from real property, especially farm land." Governor Roosevelt, on the other hand, has given us nothing but fine words and vague generalities. This simplifies matters; so that those who wish the greatest good to the largest number can have no difficulty in arriving at a decision.

There is no doubt that Mr. Lydick speaks for a vast number of Pennsylvanians, especially those living in the western part of the state. He looks on the campaign from the point of view of the average citizen. The farmer in the country and the home owner in the city need relief, and the only tangible method of obtaining it has been outlined by the President in the series of comprehensive plans which he has inaugurated, some of which are already in motion. Actions always speak louder than words, and it is wiser to trust to the man who performs than to the one who only holds forth uncertain promises. As the campaign proceeds, more and more people will be found taking this view of the case.

THE FEE TEST

There is no injustice or extortion in the new policy of the federal department of commerce placing certain of its services on a sales basis. If the department is open to criticism it is for not having assessed private business for these services from their inception.

Henceforth concerns wanting them must pay for the trade lists, sales reports, periodical releases of commodity, technical and regional divisions of the bureau, monthly statistical releases and individual statements. In the past they were distributed free.

While the public benefits indirectly from all foreign trade captured by American business there is no reason why the taxpayers should pay for a special service rendered private business by the government. The greater profit to be derived accrues to the businesses utilizing the service, and though business is in distress it is still better able to pay than the people.

Government bureaus rendering such special services should be supported by their fees or cease functioning. If the service isn't worth what it costs, then the loss to business from its abandonment would be slight. Wouldn't the fee test prove useful in determining which departments and bureaus in the national and state capitals are excess baggage?

SCHOOL DAYS

School bells are ringing again. All over the country thousands of children tuck their books under their arms and trot back to their desks. Mostly it is a happy procession. The children really like school, in spite of the persistent tradition to the contrary. They like the comradeship of their contemporaries. They like the intellectual tasks, the social activities, the athletics, and all the modern embellishments of the three R's. They like their teachers.

Every community should see to it that every child who belongs in school this fall gets there. No one should lose this opportunity, promised to every American boy and girl, for lack of clothes or money to buy food to build health. The older ones should not be taken out of school if it can possibly be avoided. It has been found that of boys and girls in their teens withdrawn from school on work permits last year a very low percentage had regular, remunerative jobs. They lost their precious schooling without gaining anything in experience or income. Idleness of an unhappy and dangerous sort was their lot.

The schools have been as hard hit as any other tax-supported or private institution. Yet they are of tremendous and vital importance to the whole nation and should be maintained by heroic effort and sacrifice if necessary.

ROADS CLEARED OF ILLEGAL ADVERTISING

The Pennsylvania Highway Department's annual clean-up campaign removed more than 28,000 pieces of illegal advertising from roadsides under the department's control. In this war against defacement of the landscape Westmoreland county led the state with a contribution of nearly 4400 confiscated posters, cards, metal and muslin ballyhoo. Berks, Delaware, Montgomery and Lawrence each surrendered more than a thousand relics to the burning of the vanities. Bucks county, the gateway to New York, was not in the running. Because of heavy travel there one might expect it to be a leader. The officials found the fewest affronts to their aesthetic eye in Wayne county, where only nine signs were removed.

This year's harvest was a thousand or so less than last year's yield, a fact which, the department believes, indicates that the campaign is bringing net results. Advertisers are beginning to co-operate in the movement for neater highways. From a strictly mercenary point of view the canyon of billboards is an unprofitable form of publicity. At the other extreme attention has been directed at "snipe" signs. These are small pieces of advertising matter attached to trees, buildings and telephone poles, often in direct violation of the law.

If a motorist is safety-minded he naturally resents intrusions upon his consciousness which distract his attention or create false suggestions. A notice in large letters to "Detour" followed by a message in smaller letters "to the strawberry festival" may be "smart" copy-writing, but its effect on the driver is likely to be the reverse of favorable. The ideal condition will arrive when all roadside nuisances are abolished, leaving only the signs which convey traffic information in clearest and simplest form.

What the country needs is a customer for a good five-cent cigar.

A sport car never will reach its highest development until manufacturers learn to nickel-plate tires.

Pessimism as a Cushion
Our Grandfathers
Nickel in the Slot

By MARSHALL MASLIN

I heard a man maintain, in all seriousness, that the safest of all philosophies is pessimism. If you are a pessimist, said he, you expect the worst always, and whatever happens is almost certain to be a little better than you anticipated. Thus you cushion the shocks of outrageous fortune and blunt the arrows it sends against your toughened hide.

Some of the strongest and most appealing the religions, he added, are essentially pessimistic, and urge man to despise the life he endures on this earth. There is something, but not everything, in this unhappy approach to life.

As we talked of a certain woman, I said that she was one of the loveliest, most delightful, most entertaining women I ever had known. And a man who knew her much better than I do remarked that, nevertheless, that woman was always on the verge of tears and that she had more trouble than the great majority of women.

She had taken her griefs and ploughed them under so far that no stranger or mere acquaintance would ever dream she was anything but the happiest of mortals.

And men are high honors for deeds much less important.

When I hear men talk of their grandfathers, I think of mine, and wish I had known him better. One died long before I was born, and he is a dim, almost far-ancestral figure, but I could have known the other well. He lived long, and people who know him loved him, and people seem to remember him still, with admiration.

But youth is busy, and youth does not care and, somehow, I missed the greater part of him and now it is too late. And I have heard other people speak just as regretfully of their own long-lost grandfathers.

There was a slot machine, and we wasted our nickels in it. We knew each one of us, that slot machine, are not made for the people who put nickels in them, but for the man who owns the machine.

But still we waste our nickels, for each of us thought that HE might be lucky and win the jackpot and come away with a pocket of small change. And most of us feel that way about life—that it is not possible for everybody to be lucky, fortunate or happy in it, but that we, somehow, may receive more than the share we deserve.

THE BALLOT IN A STORM
A mighty storm came up at sea. The waves rolled mountain high. The captain troubled seemed to be. Though clear and calm his eye.

The frightened passengers below Outnumbered all the crew. And someone said: "One way I know! Let's vote on what to do!"

"Let's vote on shall we steer ahead Or turn the ship about. So great the gale we may be dead Before the wind dies out." And some there were with trembling lips.

Who said with aching throats: "It's little that we know of ships. But still we'll cast our votes."

"I've never been to sea before." A man was heard to shout. "But I shall vote to reach the shore. To turn the ship about. Another in ill-temper cried: 'A watery death I dread. The question quickly I'll decide, I vote to steer ahead.'"

A little woman calm and brave Said: "I have children small. My happy lives I want to save. But I'll not vote at all. Of ships no knowledge I possess. I scarce know stern from bow; But I prefer in our distress To trust the captain now." (Copyright, 1932, Edgar A. Guest.)

THINKING OR DREAMING
Isn't it true that when you say you are thinking, you are only allowing your imagination to form impossible dreams?

The real problems are thrust back in your mind and pleasant mind pictures present possible easy methods of obtaining what you desire.

How childish this is! A sheer waste of time—nothing to be gained by it.

In fact much valuable time is lost when you should be thinking out something practical.

The more you encourage these day dreams the less you get down to reality and your real duty.

How much intensive thinking have you done in your lifetime?

Even when your thoughts are sensible they are surface thoughts.

You have never concentrated to a point where you could completely forget the outside world.

No, you keep that roving eye and that roving mind that stamps you as shallow.

Teach yourself to think by forgetting what others are doing and doing something connectedly and earnestly yourself.

A paper had been read in which business men were well defended. In the group were a physician, a judge, a lawyer and a professor.

Most of them had something to say and finally the judge made this observation which seemed to satisfy everyone. "We all know," he began, "that it isn't necessary to contribute to an organized charity in order to do good. We also know that wherever there is a pot of money, it will be surrounded by smiling professional uplifters. No group is free of taint. I have respect for business men and I consider them highly useful citizens. But some of them make me tired."

All he can see is opportunities ahead or

"On another morning you talk to a man who may not be so successful as a money-maker, but he has noticed that the sky is blue and that the air tastes good. He points out a magnolia tree in bloom, he comments on the architecture of a new building, he mentions a book that he read last evening. He's a far better companion than the other man, and in my estimation is much happier because he is getting more out of life.

I was amused to observe the champion order her husband to perform trifling courtesies. The evening was punctuated by commands to "Hand me that book," and "Get me a match," and "Put out the dog."

I wondered if the convention that compels a man to bob about a room like a slave waiting on a woman who could knock him down with one hand will not soon be laughed out of existence. On second thought I have concluded that the nonsense will continue. In the room that evening were five other men who admired the charm and poise of the champion. They were so eager to win a smile that they would have bumped their heads in their eagerness to obey an order. The husband knew this, and that accounted for his alacrity.

Wisdom Seen As Spain Avoids Making Martyr Of Royalist

Leniency Toward General Who Supported Monarchists Is Declared To Have Been Beneficial To Cause Of Popular Government

The decision of the Spanish Cabinet that sentence of death on General Sanjurjo, leader of the unsuccessful monarchist plot against the government, should be commuted to imprisonment, is commended in this country. Its wisdom is based, according to comment here, on the fact that history shows that making martyrs is poor policy. The service of this Army officer to the country also are considered as important factors in the nation's life, although radicals strongly advocated the extreme penalty for the General.

"Commendable mercy in commuting to life imprisonment is lauded by the CLEVELAND NEWS, with the conclusion that 'the world looks to see no political upheaval as the result of the leniency shown the General, or any confession of weakness by the present government because it did not make an example of him.' The News offers the estimate of the proceedings: 'Misguided, misinformed and no more than half-hearted in his venture, this dismal figure was virtually made to bear the whole burden of the uprising. The Spanish government has shown itself big enough to renounce the living squad for a political dissenter who foolishly marched at the head of an army possibly on nothing worse than a demonstration. The Cabinet divided sharply over commutation of the death sentence, and in that chance was to be seen a revolutionary turn on unhappy Sanjurjo ever promoted. The radicals in the Cabinet foresaw the sure collapse of the government if it weakened toward a royalist. Fortunately the moderates held them in check and prevented their resigning and thereby possibly plunging Spain in further trials or a real uprising."

"A young government," thinks the NASHVILLE BANNER, "can make no worse error than to manufacture martyrs, and it is a poor course for any government to follow." Suggesting that General Sanjurjo is "a potentially ridiculous figure in a prison cell, where if he had been executed by the government, he would presumably grow to heroic proportions." The Banner comments: "The decision of the Spanish Cabinet was not an easy one, however, for the radical elements in the Chamber of Deputies and among the people at large were vindictive toward General Sanjurjo and all he represented. They clamored for his life and have since protested rather bitterly and vehemently because he was allowed to live. There is also the possibility that other Royalist plotters will be encouraged by the failure of the Cabinet to act with all possible severity. All in all, though, clemency is to be preferred. General Sanjurjo's son was set free, incidentally, on the ground that his loyalty to his father rather than disloyalty to the Republic led him to take what part he had in the revolt. If others later presume on the good nature of the Republic, it will be time enough to show the iron hand."

This paper also finds lessons in history which it presents thus: "If the Spanish radicals had taken the trouble to study and reflect, history would have presented them innumerable evidences of the extreme folly of making martyrs. Faced with the choice of beheading Charles I as a traitor or of letting him run away to the Continent to live as the futile figure he was, Cromwell and his supporters chose to behead, and from that day, in reality, their cause was doomed and the Restoration assured."

It is pointed out by the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS that "Sanjurjo did nothing to prevent the fall of the monarchy 17 months ago, but that 'he strove to put the Infante Don Juan upon the throne ignoring former King Alfonso's claims.' The fate of a rigid royalist policy is recalled by The Express and in the course of its review of the proceedings, it states: 'Republican attacks upon the monarchists were dealt with more sternly while Alfonso XIII was on the throne. When a regiment stationed at Jaca—near the French frontier—rose against the government in December, 1930, Premier Berenguer's cabinet showed no mercy to the officers held responsible. Captains Galan and Hernandez at once were sent before firing squads and four comrades were given life imprisonment. That sternness toward the insurgents strengthened the opposition to the monarchy, which fell in April 1931."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

BACK TO NORMAL.
The power of sight to hasten belief is well illustrated in the following incident which occurred at one of Boston's well known savings banks the other day.

An old lady approached the cashier's cage of the bank with her pass book and a withdrawal slip for practically all of her remaining deposit. The cashier, sensing the woman's state of mind, took an armful of money, as much as he could carry, and dropped it on the counter in front of her, with the remark that she could have the amount of her withdrawal slip as much more as she wanted. Then in a humorous vein, he asked if she would prefer it in large bills or in pennies and have the bank truck take it home for her.

Upon seeing such a display of money, she apparently decided that she did not want to draw hers out as badly as she thought she did and left the bank. About an hour later, she returned with $800 for deposit, made up in packets of $20. Each packet was tightly wadded and wrapped with twine and string, covered with dust, and smelled as though it had been under the eaves for many a moon. Under her supervision, the cashier untied and counted each packet, and upon completion of the deposit transaction the old lady offered him $25 for his trouble (of course the money was refused) and left the bank, saying that she was going to see two old lady friends of hers who also had money hidden away and to whom she would suggest they bring it to the bank.

KIWANIANS HEAR RADIO LANE MAY BE SHIFTED HERE

Bell Plant Chief, In Speech, Says 'Repeater' Station May Get Lines

A strong possibility now exists that, commencing this fall, the important red and blue broadcasting chains of the east will be routed through the American Telephone & Telegraph company's local repeater station on the Youngstown road, Charles A. Bolen, district plant superintendent for the Bell Telephone company, declared in an address before the Kiwanis club at noon.

Bolen's talk, the feature of the Kiwanis luncheon at The Castleton, interestingly described the workings of the delicate and highly sensitive instruments which relay telephone, telegraph and newspaper tele-type messages across this section of Pennsylvania.

The chain of the Columbia broadcasting system is now routed through the local booster station, but with the re-routing of the larger chains through here the work of the station will become immensely more significant.

The Bell plant superintendent told the Kiwanians of the difficult problems faced by company engineers in the earlier stages of communication development. Step by step they overcame seemingly unfathomable kinks and gained the high type of relay service that now is offered.

For a considerable part of his talk, Bolen chose to picture the instruments which boost along the messages that flow in here from other repeater stations in the east and west.

The A. T. & T. established booster plants of the type operating here every 50 miles across the United States, and at the present time at least two-thirds of the country is linked by them. Another northern repeater line runs from Buffalo to Erie, Cleveland and on west to Chicago. The local cable lines lead west to Cleveland and into Chicago. Pittsburgh is the southern point messages are relayed to from here.

Bolen, in conclusion, paid tribute to the highly trained engineers who operate the station here and who, with delicate testing equipment, sound out defects that might mar important long-distance telephone, newspaper tele-type and broadcasts service.

McKee To Abolish Tinsel And Whoopla

Will Not Use Cabriolet Formerly Used By Mayor Walker

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—No sporty $20,000 foreign car for Joseph V. McKee, the new "9 to 5" mayor of New York who has succeeded the colorful "Jimmy" Walker.

Nor private chauffeurs, either. McKee, in the throes of budget slashing movement, said he can get along without the cabriolet, with its shining chromium trim and its sleek black lines, and also without the chauffeurs.

"Jimmy" Walker used to ride around Manhattan in the car and two chauffeurs—one for day work and one for night work—were attached to the mayor's office payroll.

"All that's out," said McKee today, as he sat in his office in city hall, his coat off and sleeves rolled up. "The car will not be used by me. It's relegated to the garage. And this morning I ordered the two chauffeurs to report to Commissioner Albert Goldman who has the assignment of city cars. I haven't any use for the chauffeurs in my work."

New York City, he indicated, is going to cut down on the cost of receptions to famous flyers, channel swimmers and the like. All the tinsel and whoopla of such receptions are going to be eradicated, he made plain.

McKee, who has inaugurated a drastic economy program by reducing his own salary from $40,000 to $25,000 and announcing that after October 1 none of the department heads will receive more than $12,000 annually, said the future receptions will be "consistent with the times."

STUDENTS OF OLD LAWRENCE BACK IN SCHOOL

Some Go To Mahoning, Others To Terrace; Were Confused Yesterday

Yesterday's temporary confusion as to where they should attend school was straightened out today for the boys and girls of the Wilder avenue and Mahoning avenue district who last year were students of Lawrence school.

Some thirty or forty of the youngsters gathered at the old Lawrence school building at North Liberty street and Wilder avenue on the morning of Wednesday, the first day of school unaware that the building has been temporarily abandoned.

Today they are beginning the term in new locations, the Mahoning and Terrace avenue schools. Mahoning seems to be accommodating most the Lawrence student body although many from the eastern side of the Mahoning avenue railroad tracks are trekking their ways across the viaduct to Terrace.

Governor Orders Easy, Cheap Method To End Dangerous Road Curves

HARRISBURG, Sept. 8.—Flat curves on Pennsylvania's thousands of miles of concrete road will be a thing of the past in the not distant future, Governor Pinchot announced today. Means have been found to bank or super-elevate rigid pavements without breaking the slab. As a result the Department of Highways will eliminate hundreds of flat curves, and curves sloped the wrong way, which for years have caused death, injury and loss of property.

"The first of the flat curves to be banked is on the Lincoln highway near Harrisonville, Fulton county," the governor said. "At the center of the curve the elevation is now 12 inches. The curve itself is 150 feet long, and it was necessary gradually to bank both approaches for 150 feet. The operation was completed without marring the concrete. A safe curve sloped the right way is the result. Pennsylvania has hundreds of flat curves which should be treated similarly.

"This state began its intensive highway construction program in 1919. The highway department's chief engineer turned thumbs down on the suggestion that curves be steeply banked. He declared the natural hazard of a flat curve would force motorists to slow down to a reasonable speed. As a matter of record it didn't. He said, too, that in winter horses would slip on a super-elevated concrete road, and trucks skid. Time proved that he was wrong.

Better Bank

"For years all concrete on curves was put down flat. In dozens of instances when the 'subgrade' settled after the surface was completed the curves sloped the wrong way. Hundreds of accidents occurred. At the beginning of my present administration I discovered that while highway specifications called for a slight bank on the inside of the curve, this bank was broken near the outer edge. The result was something like a house roof, with a short slope on the outside and a long one on the inside. I directed that the bank continue in a straight line from inside to outside of the slab. Today the bank ranges from six inches to two feet, depending upon the abruptness and length of the curve.

"Mud is the agency through which the Highway Department is correcting the errors of its early engineers. The mechanism by which automobile wheels are raised from the ground is known as a jack; and the mechanism through which mud is put to work is called the mud-jack. The operation is not complicated.

Not Difficult

"Two-inch holes are drilled in the concrete, eight feet apart along the road and four feet apart across it. Clay or earth, with water and from five to 10 per cent of Portland cement, are mixed to a creamy consistency in a pug-mill. A hose connects a pump with a hole in the slab. Through this hole a small amount of mud is forced beneath the slab, not much at a time, and the operation is repeated from hole to hole so as not to crack the pavement. The first and only difficulty is in breaking loose the slab from the subgrade. When this is done the pavement is raised gradually over the entire length of the curve and the approaches. The cost is trifling.

For some time highway engineers have used the mud-jack to bring sunken approaches to the level of bridges.

"It is all very simple," commented Governor Pinchot, "and engineers have been wondering why some one didn't think of the process long ago. Simple though it may be, it will save many lives, many broken bones and much property."

Tarzan Vs. Cupid

Film Superman Licked By Love Sprite

By Central Press

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Sept. 8.—Tarzan is in trouble!

Menacing the peace of mind of Johnny Weissmuller, one-time world champion swimmer and recent screen portrayal of the famed "ape man" of fiction, are not a horde of gibbering gorillas, a host of bloodthirsty blacks or a herd of chop-licking lions.

Nope, Tarzan, the mighty man of the jungles, who—on paper and on the screen—strangles titanic snakes and kayoes murderous crocodiles, is having trouble with a wee little sprite, a puny-muscled cherub armed only with a bow and rose-scented arrows—Mr. Daniel J. Cupid, himself!

Parting Of The Ways

Cupid—it seems—has departed the well-appointed home of the Weissmullers and left Johnny and Mrs. Johnny at odds. It is a situation which has developed into the preliminaries for a divorce.

Johnny and Cupid became pals several years ago when Johnny, then a bronzed king of aquatic sports, was introduced to a slim, petite, musical comedy queen—Miss Bobbie Arnst.

Johnny and Bobbie fell in love with a bang. She admired him for his great feats in the swimming tanks, which made him a world champion in sport, and he admired her for the wit and beauty which made her a theatrical star. They married. And they were still happy.

Then—Hollywood

In Hollywood Johnny became interested in the movies. But he owned a nose which failed to cost Ronald Coleman, John Barrymore and the other screen boys any sleep. So Johnny placed his nasal organ into the tender care of a plastic surgeon.

When the bandages were removed Johnny peeked into a mirror. Gone was the old bulb-tipped proboscis and in its place was a refined snout—or horn, to give it a scientific name—which would have done credit to a Grecian statue of old Adonis himself.

Bobbe applauded. So did the movie directors.

The newly enhanced Weissmuller was offered the role of Tarzan. He took it. And knocked the paying customers out of their seats.

Johnny's friends were still cheering over his success, however, when Dan Cupid up and packed his bags and beat it.

Bobbe says she still likes Johnny—but the something in Hollywood that seems to come between couples in Hollywood seems to have come between them. It's an undelimited, vague something that chills love.

HITLER AND VON PAPEN BATTLE LINES DRAWN

Monday Meeting Is Crucial Test

Expect Von Papen Will Dissolve Reichstag After Presenting Program

HITLER SAYS MOVE IS NO SETTLEMENT

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Sept. 8.—Hitler lines between Adolf Hitler and the Von Papen government were definitely drawn today.

Two points stood out clearly as each side prepared for Monday's meeting of the Reichstag, the second of the newly-elected body and the one at which Chancellor Franz Von Papen will present his government's program.

See Coalition
First, despite contrary reports, Hitler's national socialists almost certainly will form a coalition with the Catholic centrists of former Chancellor Brüning and thus present a majority rule of the Reichstag.

Second, this Reichstag almost certainly will be dissolved by the chancellor immediately after he has read his program, a step possible by the emergency decree signed by President Paul von Hindenburg and now carried in Von Papen's pocket, ready for use at any time.

Hitler Belligerent
Such a dissolution, however, will not dishearten the Nazis, Hitler, in a fiery speech at Munich last night, challenged Von Papen to a fight to the end.

"We won't let you keep power, not if you dissolve the Reichstag ten times," he said.

"We are afraid of nothing."

Principals and teachers of the days of 1880 to 1900, who are still living, have been invited to be present and participate in the affair, and quite a number have signified their intention of doing so.

Harry Clark, president of the association, announces that the program will be of a rather informal nature but will include many features that these boys and girls of other days will not want to miss, so all should be on time to take part in the affair.

Leonard Cumberland, who was saved from death by drowning by firemen from Central station Tuesday night, is improved, it was stated at the Jameson Memorial hospital this morning.

Cumberland was found lying in four feet of water in a pool youths from the Jefferson street district had constructed in the rear of Hunter's Laundry. He was pulled from the stream and resuscitated by artificial respiration, under the direction of Assistant Fire Chief Jas. E. Thomas.

Provide Quarters For New Nurses

East Wing On Third Floor Of Jameson Memorial Hospital Partitioned Off

Workmen have completed partitioning off the east wing of the third floor of the Jameson Memorial hospital, which will be used as a nurses' home this winter. A door has been cut through the partition giving the nurses access to the other wings of the floor, but when the door is locked they will be set apart from the hospital proper.

The new class of student nurses begin their studies on September 12 and because the Nurses' Home east of the hospital is crowded it was necessary to make provision for the excess.

This will be done by moving some of the older student nurses over to the hospital and giving the students the rooms in the Home.

State Forms Are Not Needed For Issuing Relief

Many Boards In State Not Issuing Relief, Because Of Forms

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Sept. 8.—Gov. Gifford Pinchot today reiterated his statement that lack of forms for food orders should not be responsible for holding up issuance of relief in any county from Taubol fund allocations.

Copies of the stenographic report taken at the initial meeting of the state emergency relief board showed that the governor then had informed members of the county boards that it was not necessary to await printed forms from the state board before issuing food orders.

At that time the governor told the board members that uniform forms for food orders would be available later but that meanwhile "any type of food order approved by a county board and afterwards submitted by the county board will be approved by us."

W. B. Rodgers, state director of the relief board, said that more than 20 counties have filed the necessary data at headquarters here and begun the issuance of food orders. He also asserted that there is no reason for delay in issuing orders in counties where state assistance is needed.

Hog Hollow Run Culvert Completed Without Engineers

Road supervisors of Shenango township have completed the building of a cement bridge over Hog Hollow road. The supervisors, in their endeavor to comply with the law, made three requests for a state engineer before they started to work. As the engineer failed to show up, they went ahead and built the culvert. Just as it was being completed the engineer arrived and found the bridge to be all right. This merely goes to show that Lawrence county has some road supervisors who are fully competent to build culverts.

The perfect motor oil must excel in five essential qualities—low carbon content—long life—low consumption—winter fluidity—ability to keep its body.

The best Paraffinic oils rate well in three of these qualities. They lack two.

Naphthenic (Asphaltic) oils are excellent in two of these qualities. They lack three.

Hydrofined Essolube is the only oil ever produced to excel in all five essential qualities.

Hydrofining made this possible—for the first time.

Essolube is so superior to all other oils that it has replaced "Standard" Motor Oil. Yet hydrofined Essolube sells at no extra cost.

Essolube is sold at all stations and dealers of the following companies: Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania, Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, Standard Oil Company, Incorporated in Kentucky, Colonial Beacon Oil Company, Inc.

Cubs Slip Back To Five Games

Pirates Win And Lose As Cubs Take Shellacking At Boston For Two Games

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—With the league-leading Cubs running true to form by making a disastrous start on their final swing through the East, the panic was on again in the National League today.

Although the Bruins still are five games in front of the Pirates, the former showed signs of going into one of their typical road slumps by losing both ends of a double-header to the lowly Boston Braves yesterday, 11 to 4 and 2 to 0.

The remainder of the Eastern trip will provide an acid test for the managerial ability of Charley Grimm, under whose inspired leadership the Cubs won 18 out of 20 games in their home stand, concluded last week.

Cubs Blow Up

Grimm's players went to pieces completely in the seventh inning of the first game yesterday when the Braves routed Pat Malone and scored nine runs. The Bruins were guilty of five errors.

In the nightcap Ben Cantwell limited the Cubs to seven hits and outpitched Bush and Smith.

After winning their eleventh game in succession behind Bill Swift's pitching, 8 to 3, with the aid of six-run rally in the first inning, the Pirates were beaten by Freddy Heimach, portly Brooklyn southpaw, in the nightcap by a 4 to 2 count.

Hits by Glancy and Wright featured the Dodgers' attack on Bill Harris. Ott's 32nd homer and five straight hits by Joe Moore enabled the Giants to nose out Cincinnati, 7 to 5.

With Jumbo Jim Elliott tightening up in the pinches, the Phillies staggered to the wire ahead of the Cardinals, 6 to 5. "Dizzy" Dean was the losing hurler.

All American league clubs were idle.

BABE RUTH TO BE EXAMINED

Famous Slugger Gets Pain In Side, Goes Back To New York

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Suffering with what may be an attack of appendicitis, Babe Ruth was enroute to New York today from Detroit.

The New York Yankees star left the club suddenly at Detroit last night and departed for New York, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth. He will arrive here this afternoon and was expected to immediately undergo an examination by physicians.

At the offices of the Yankees here it was stated "nothing was known except that Ruth is sick and coming home."

Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees is enroute to Detroit. It was learned that McCarthy, while visiting in Buffalo yesterday, was called on the telephone by Ruth. The great hitter told McCarthy he was sick and "thought" he had appendicitis. He obtained McCarthy's permission to return to New York to be examined by the Yankee's club physician.

Officials of the club here said Ruth had been in the best of health. The crippled Yankees play double-headers in Detroit today and tomorrow with a single game scheduled for Saturday and then move on to Cleveland. In their quest for the American League pennant and the right to play in the world's series, the Yanks need only six more victories.

George Trainor Mercer Champion

Wins Title After Brilliant Exhibition On West Middlesex Course

After shooting a brilliant sub-par round of 70 yesterday morning on the Tam-O-Shanter course at West Middlesex George Trainor came back in the afternoon to hold the lead of seven holes he had won from Johnny Lucas, Sharon caddy, to win the Mercer County amateur championship.

Trainor was two over the 18-hole course record in the morning round, shooting a 70. On his first round he shot nine consecutive fours, and was only one up on his youthful opponent, but started out on the second round by shooting four birdies out of the first five holes, taking seven holes in succession.

Lucas came back in the afternoon round and made a desperate effort to cut down the tremendous lead Trainor had gained, but the best he could do was to finish five down with four holes to go. Trainor winning on the 14th hole. He completed the 18 holes in the afternoon with a 69, one stroke better than the morning round.

Neshannock Township High School Pupils Again Face Problem Of Tuition

Boys and girls of Neshannock Township who are eligible for high school this year, or who have been attending high school for the last year or two are denied that privilege this year, unless they pay their tuition to the New Castle Senior high school each month.

Because the school board of Neshannock Township has not yet paid the City of New Castle School District a back tuition bill of $8,000 the New Castle board decided that it did not care to enlarge the debt and has insisted that tuition must now be paid on a cash-and-carry plan.

Township Must Pay

Under the school code the individual citizen does not pay the tuition for his boys and girls where the township does not have a high school. This must be paid by the township school board but for some reason Neshannock Township has been in arrears for some years.

A year ago, with a new board, the members assured the New Castle School Board that the back debts would be paid and upon that basis the Neshannock Township pupils were admitted to the New Castle Senior high school. The time limit upon the payment of the back debt was extended twice, but still no money. Now the New Castle board feels that it has extended all the credit it can afford, that Neshannock Township should not expect New Castle to educate its high school students and the ban is on.

Residents who wish to pay the tuition of their boys and girls can get them admitted by doing so, but the average resident feels that inasmuch as he pays school taxes for the purpose of the township paying the bill to New Castle, that he is paying a double price for tuition.

A year ago the same situation created considerable interest and resulted in the New Castle Board permitting the entrance of students upon assurances of remuneration from Neshannock Township. This year the New Castle Board wants to have its assurance negotiable at the bank.

McCarthy Hopes Ruth Will Play In Big Series

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Sept. 8.—Babe Ruth is not likely to be kept out of the World Series, manager Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees said Thursday, intimating that he did not believe the illness which sent the home run king to New York was serious.

"Of course I haven't seen Ruth but I know his temperament," said McCarthy upon arriving here.

"I'm hoping he's suffering only from fatigue and nervousness."

Are Investigating New Coal Field

Jury Is Drawn For October Court Term

Jury Commissioners Start This Morning To Get Names For Filling Wheel

Jury Commissioners Howard Leslie and William Newwander, with Sheriff Frank Johnston this morning drew a jury for a term of common pleas court, beginning on the 17th of October.

Following the drawing of the jury the commissioners started filling the jury wheel for next year. No order as to the number of names to be put in the wheel has yet been made by the court, but it will probably be around 1500 names, the same as last year.

Jury Commissioner Howard Leslie stated this morning that it is important that voters register, if they want to get their names in the jury wheel. "Many people, especially women," said Leslie, telephone in and want their names placed in the jury wheel. We always look up the records to see if they are registered. If they are not, it does not show very much interest in local affairs. We try to get the names of persons who are enough interested in the affairs of the county, to register.

"This applies particularly to the city, where there is personal registration. In the boroughs and townships, the names are usually placed on the books by the registering assessors."

Expect Releases For West Pittsburg Road Will Soon Be Signed

Keen interest was displayed by most of the property owners along the West Pittsburg road, when they met with State Engineer Charles Fitzsimmons, county commissioners, and road supervisors of Taylor and Shenango townships yesterday. Among those interested were C. J. Kirk, Thomas Hartman and Carl Hall. Mr. Kirk owns some land along the road, while Hartman and Hall, were interested in a limestone quarry, which belongs to the Johnston estate.

There is a tramway from the limestone quarry which is located on the hill to the railroad below. Owners of the quarry only ask that they be permitted to go under the new road, the same as the old. Both Hartman and Hall were enthusiastic over the benefits which will accrue to the West Pittsburg section, and the lower end of the county by the building of the road.

Commissioners met the highway engineer and property owners at the intersection of Moravia street and the West Pittsburg road. There are several houses near the intersection and the owners have been slow to sign releases until they were assured where the property lines are to be located.

State Engineer Fitzsimmons had blue prints with him and was able to point out the exact lines. At the intersection of the two roads the northwest corner will be rounded off. The land necessary must be taken from the Joseph Frenzel property. Mr. Frenzel owns two lots fronting on Moravia street. On the south lot there is a triple garage, about fifty feet back from Moravia street.

In order to round the corner it is proposed to take a part off the front of the south lot. The roadway will then come to the corner of the garage, which will probably have to be moved. Mr. Frenzel will be damaged to some extent, but he wants the road, and is willing to make a very reasonable settlement. There are three properties to the west of Frenzel on the same side of the road, from which a little land will have to be taken but there will be no serious damage.

The present West Pittsburg road is 32 feet wide. The proposed road will be 50 feet right of way, with an 18 foot concrete driveway. The right of way will come within about two feet of the porch of one of the houses on the north side of the road, and will necessitate the removal of a hedge, but the driveway will still be about sixteen feet from the house.

On the south side of the road near the intersection there are some half dozen houses. The proposed right of way will come within five or six feet of these houses. There are at present stone walls in front of three of the properties, which Engineer Fitzsimmons said might possibly stand, but which would probably be undermined and might have to be removed at a later date, if not when the road is built. A little further west are the Lamson properties, consisting of three old houses. The right of way will take the coal houses which are in the front yards, but will leave room to get into the houses without difficulty.

The properties described belong to persons who have not yet signed releases. They wished to know where the lines were, and now that they have been pointed out, it is believed that agreements can be made.

A short distance west of the houses described the proposed road leaves the present right of way and goes over the hill west of the present road, thus eliminating the dangerous hill. The next property visited was that of Samuel Law. It stands east of the present road on a high knoll.

There has been some misunderstanding as to where the proposed road ran with reference to this house. It was found today that the road will run back of the house. It will come within five feet of the back porch and will be about five feet higher than the porch.

A short distance south of the Law property is a large tract of land belonging to the A. D. Newell heirs.

who had not yet signed releases, not knowing the road lines. Several of those interested were present and when the lines were explained seemed to be satisfied.

The last properties inspected were those of William Sword, near the intersection of the road leading down to the railroad yards. There will be a slight change in the road at this point. The right of way runs within a few feet of the corner of two of the houses. There are also a couple of cesspools which will have to be moved.

Representatives of the Universal Sanitary Company were present to make inquiries with regard to the road, leading from the West Pittsburg road down to their plant. There is quite a steep grade at present, and the only interest of the Universal people is that the West Pittsburg road be not raised at this point. Engineer Fitzsimmons could not exactly from his plans, but did not believe that there would be any change. The Universal people are very much interested in the road as it will make it more convenient for their employees than the old road, which is dangerous in winter.

Now that the property lines are known it is expected that the county commissioners will be able to sign releases within a few days. Any reluctance on the part of any property owner will delay actual work, as the commissioners will not approve the bid secured by the state department until releases are secured. Most of the owners of land have shown a fine spirit of co-operation, and it is not believed that any of them will want to stand in the way of the improvement.

Sunday School Has Grown To Such Numbers That Departments Must Be Separated

The Sunday school at the Neighborhood House, East Reynold St., has grown to such proportions that it is necessary now to move the primary and junior scholars of the school to the basement room of the German Baptist church, which is now the home of the Neighborhood House.

The separating of the departments means that the younger children will have no instrument for the leading of the singing and those interested in the welfare of the Sunday school send out an appeal to anyone who has a piano they are not using and wish to find a place for, will benefit the Sunday school if they will call Miss Christine Butler, phone 3927, and arrangements will be made to have the instrument moved to the church.

ONLY fresh GAS PACKS FULL POWER!

FRESH-MADE gas packs "life," punch, power. But as staleness increases—power decreases. The "light ends"—the "easy starting" elements—evaporate. Besides that, a chemical change takes place—making gas sluggish, weak and "dead."

And the staler the gas, the stickier it is—the more apt to foul your motor. And the more apt it is to knock.

The entire petroleum industry has long sought ways to overcome gas deterioration. Gulf, after years of study, now announces a system that assures you of FRESH, full-powered gasoline! Here's how...

By making the best possible gasoline and refining out certain complex elements that cause early deterioration. Thus Gulf postpones staleness.

And by rushing this FRESH gas to you like some perishable food—giving it no time to get stale.

Gulf has spotted its huge refineries in many sections of the country—so that every Gulf filling station is close to a source of FRESH-MADE gasoline. Gulf has geared its whole distribution system to high speed. Fast trucks speed FRESH gas to Gulf pumps every day.

Get your money's worth—get FULL power. Get FRESH gas—delivered FRESH. Get Gulf—exclusively.

MAN SEVENTY-SEVEN; GREETED BOYHOOD CHUM; ON VISIT TO ILLINOIS

James P. Sherbine of Franklin avenue, New Castle, has returned from Colchester, Ill., where he was called by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Lou Cowan, who is quite aged. She sustained a broken hip in a fall at her home. Although no hope is held for her recovery, she is resting a bit easier.

While there Mr. Sherbine had the pleasure of talking with a school chum of his who also is 77 years old, Thomas Gordon of Sciota, Ill. The

Football Squad Looks Promising

Coach Bridenbaugh puts Squad Of 65 Through Paces At Taggart Field

KOMINIC REPORTS FOR FIRST TIME

With a squad of about 65 sun-burned and tanned young athletes eagerly going through their paces, the New Castle high school football team this year looks more encouraging than for a number of years past. Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh gave the squad a good workout Wednesday afternoon at Taggart Field.

The week at camp did the boys a world of good. They are ready right now for a tough scrimmage. They are in the best of condition. There were several new comers reported Wednesday. They were Edwin Thompson, a halfback, who hails from Delano, Florida. He was given a suit and looks promising.

Komic Reports. Steve Komic, the big rangy hard hitting fullback of last year missed camp but reported to Coach Bridenbaugh Wednesday and will no doubt give the boys a tough battle for a starting berth.

Right now the starting lineup looks like this—Thomas and either James or Tomello at the ends, Raskowski and Captain DeCarbo at the guards, the Shelloe brothers Fred and Alex at the tackles, and Duff at center.

Calling signals this year will be either Johnny Uram or Tom Rambo. At the halfback posts will be Uram, James, Nickum or Kolodjeski. Komic and Kolodjeski look like the best bets at the fullbacking job, with the other boys likely to start at halfback when not fullbacking.

Given New Plays. New plays have been given the team. The second team is almost as big as the first team. The New Castle squad looks to be bigger than they did in the spring game with Butler. The boys have taken on some beef this summer.

With only a week left before the opening game Coach Bridenbaugh has a lot of work ahead of him, getting the boys in their proper places and drilling those intricate signals into their heads.

The squad looked good in summer camp, but the appearance of Steve Komic makes them look improved. Daily workouts are in order now until the season is over.

SMITHS DEFEAT CRISIS 8 TO 2

Smiths won from Crisic eight to two yesterday in a mullball game on the B. & O. field. Pecorella pitched good mullball. He fanned 11 and allowed only six hits. Snow hit 11 times. P. Gennoch hit a triple with the bases loaded. Turco got a homer.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Crisic 0 0 0 0 2-2 6 2 Smiths 0 2 0 14 10-8 11 2 Batteries: Smiths, Pascarella, Barlett and Richards; Crisic, Snow and Aven. Umpire, Ross.

Prices For First Game At Stadium

Football fans have been anxiously awaiting the announcement of prices for the opening football game of the year at Taggart Field. The first games finds New Castle High opposing Union Township Friday night, September 16.

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner today announced the following prices which are practically the same as last year, with the exception of the season tickets. Season tickets last year were $7.50, and this year for the eight home games they will be $6.00.

The prices for the opening game—Center section of concrete stands—75 cents.

Other sections in concrete stands—50 cents.

Student section of concrete stands—25 cents open to all grade schools in city, grades, junior and senior high.

Bleachers on western side of field—50 cents. Southern bleachers—25 cents.

Kid section, northern end—10 cents.

Reserved season tickets—$6.00.

There is no tax on high school football games, according to Mr. Gardner. The Athletic Council may decide to change these prices for the later games.

Season tickets will be held at the Sporting Goods Store for those who had them last year, or they may be purchased starting next Monday. Also the reserved 75 and 50 cent seats in the concrete stands will go on sale next Monday.

Gray Has Hopes Of Making Good

Vito Mangine May Return To Ring With 'Bang' This Winter

JOYCE AWAITING BATTLE SUMMONS

Were one asked to point out one of the most likely looking battlers in this vicinity he could do lots worse than to point his finger at Homer Gray, the colored middleweight in the stable of Jim Smith and Roy Smith. To date, if recollection serves correctly, he has been undefeated.

Until Homer smote Bill Donnell for a knockout the lads about town said, "Oh, Homer? Ah, shucks, that boy is too cautious." When he milled with Donnell, both went to it and Homer's superior ringcraft helped him aplenty.

Smith and Dygart have already commenced priming him for a cinch, that, if he is not sent along too fast he may collect some 'buck'. Homer is a smart kid and behaves himself in and out of the ring.

Vito Mangine will probably come back to the game with a vengeance this winter. The first ward lightweight is rugged and likes to give and take. He has fought some good fights here and probably will get a chance in some outside rings this winter.

Billy Joyce, former Youngstown lightweight, has had his main bout baptismal and is awaiting to be pegged. According to Jim Dime he isn't averse to sending him against any of the boys of Joyce's weight in this section.

When Babe Triscaro beat Ross Fields, that is, according to the decision at Cleveland his stock went up and he is now said to be the fourth best bantam in the world. Only recently Triscaro walloped Luis Carpentiero and stands as high in Cleveland fans opinion.

What has become of Pop Eye or Merle Gibson? Since the cessation of boxing some of the boys who earned their bacon have not had a fight. When the bowl was running the matchmaker saw to it that they all got a break.

World Pacing Record Falls

Logan Scott won the Fox three year old pacing stake valued at $6,447.79 during the Grand Circuit racing at Indianapolis yesterday.

His Majesty established a new world's record in the first heat by negotiating the distance in 2:02 flat. Another feature developed in the 2:10 pace when Zombro Hanover covered the mile in 2:00 flat, which equaled the fastest race mile paced this year.

ELLWOOD CITY AND SPENCERS PLAY TIE

Ellwood City and Spencers played a nine-nine deadlock in a mullball game yesterday on Washington field. P. and E. Spencer got home runs and Moser also swatted a four ply swat. Spencers outwitted Ellwood 15 to 13.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Ell. City 0 12 20 3-9 13 0 Spencers 0 0 0 20 3-9 15 1 Batteries: Ellwood, Patterson and Nye; Spencers: E. Spencer and Vaughn.

GRAZIANI'S TRIM ORRS TEAM 5 TO 0

Graziani's baseball team handed the Orrs team a 5 to 0 shutout last night in a game at Lehigh field. Mazzetti on the mound for the Grazianis allowed only three hits and fanned 12 men. Schaus was the hurled for the Orrs and pitched a fine five-hit game, and fanned six, but errors hurt his chances of winning. C. Ross and McKnight had extra-base hits. The Grazianis won the game by rallying in the sixth to score three runs.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Grazianis 0 0 0 0 0-5 3 0 Orrs 0 0 0 0 0-0 3 3 Batteries: Grazianis, Mazzetti and V. Ross; Orrs, Schaus and Soveski. Umpires: Thomas and Curley.

Geneva Football Squad Prepares For Season

BEAVER FALLS, Sept. 8.—The heat wave of the past several days has failed to slow up the two drill per day routine at the Geneva College football camp here. Howard Lovewell and Ray Turpin, Geneva's line star of last season who has one more year to work to earn a diploma but is through so far as varsity football is concerned.

Some thirty members of last year's squad have returned together with twelve newcomers who will attempt to provide the answer to the Geneva mentor's quest for new material to replace the various 1931 losses. Such men as Alured "Slim" Ransom, center, Tommy Stauffer, guard, George Johnston, Ray Turpin, and "Tuck" McConnell, tackles, Kent "Pittler" Sole, end, and Art Weigle, fullback, have completed their collegiate moleskin careers and their absence this year is noted with regret.

MAHONING SIGNS LEFTY MILLER

Following a conference yesterday arrangements have been made to stage a seven game series between Scarazzo and Mahoning, the former of the Lawrence County league and the latter of the Twilight circuit.

Al Scarazzo held out for a seven game series and said today that he believes Scarazzo will be able to take four straight games from Mahoning.

The personnel of the teams will remain the same excepting that Lefty Miller has been added to the pitching staff of Mahoning. He has been for Volant, bitterest rival of Mahoning.

The first game will be played at three p. m. D. S. T. Saturday at Centennial field.

ST. ANDREWS TOPS RICHMANS 14 TO 8

St. Andrews topped the Richmans 14 to 8 in a mullball game at Gaston Park last evening. The church boys hammered DeRoss for enough hits to produce 11 runs in the first inning, and thereby clinch the game. Home runs were hit by Small, Gregor, Dave Riley, and Yeager. Small the St. Andrews pitcher was found for 11 hits but kept them well scattered.

Tonight St. Andrews will play the Undefeated Engineers at Gaston Park. Friday night they meet the West Side Merchants at Gaston Park, and Saturday will go to Ellwood City to finish their series with the fast Ellwood City team.

Wingerd-Carroll Tennis Finalists

Tommy Jones And "Bus" Reiber Will Clash For Junior Championship Friday

KIRK-McFATE ELIMINATED

Lowell H. Wingerd defeated Joe McFate and Dan Carroll defeated J. S. "Micky" Kirk, last evening at the Senior singles title for the Cienmore courts to enter the finals of the senior championship. The deciding match will be played Friday night at 6 o'clock at the Cienmore courts.

In the Junior tourney Tommy Jones, son of Traffic Officer Jones, will meet Lester "Bus" Reiber at the Cienmore court at 4:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon. Tommy Jones defeated A. Jones Wednesday afternoon 6-4, 6-1. This was a hard fought contest, but it was apparent that Tommy Jones the best of the two.

Hard Fought Match The Wingerd-McFate match was a hard fought one, with Wingerd taking the first two sets in rather easy fashion 6-1, 6-2, and was well on his way to the end in the third set 5-2, when McFate suddenly rallied and tied up the games at 5-5. The third set was won by Wingerd 6-6.

Carroll defeated Kirk in easy manner 6-2, 6-4 and 6-2. The tourney is drawing to a close. More than 100 of the city's best tennis players have tried their hand at tourney play. Wingerd and Carroll stand as the two best. Wingerd is the 1931 champion and will be defending his title Friday against one of the cleverest tennis players in the city. Tuilly Calza has directed the tourney very satisfactorily. Trophy cups will be presented to the winners.

Gilliland Out Of Muny Race

Last Year's Municipal Links Champion Is Eliminated By Ellwood Entry

Flashing a brilliant round of golf Bob Thompson of Ellwood City eliminated M. K. Gilliland, Municipal Course champion for the past two years, from the race in their match played on Saturday.

Thompson will meet Tackett Kennedy, who is one of the outstanding Muny Course performers, on Sunday, the winner of which will be in the finals for the course championship.

Three other matches must be played to determine who will play the winner of the Thompson-Kennedy match in the finals.

Ed Kelly and Bill Nunn are scheduled to oppose each other, while Howard Gibson meets Roy C. E. Nimmo. The winners of these last two matches will meet to determine the opponent of the Thompson-Kennedy match in the finals.

In eliminating Gilliland, Thompson shot a 75, just two over par for the course, while Gilliland had a 76, Thompson winning one up.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

The old saying that there is no honor for a prophet in his own town does not hold true in the case of Gene Venzke, holder of the world indoor track record for the mile run who lost considerable prestige in the Olympic trials on the Pacific coast. He is to receive a "welcome home" next month.

Blue rocks are popular at Monte Carlo according to reports from across the ocean, and European sportsmen are now shooting at clay pigeons and making pies with their live pigeons. Scores of men who have taken care of the pigeons have been dismissed. They were engaged in raising birds and training retrievers.

Wrestling fans of Portland, Ore., witnessed a "hanging" during a bout recently. Robin Reed and Bulldog Jackson were wrestling when Jackson stuck his head between the top and second ropes of the ring. Reed flipped Jackson's heels in the air and over the top strand. The Bulldog's head caught the second as he went chin caught the next moment he was dangling but was freed by fans and the referee.

TELEPHONE IS STRONG LEADER

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The stock market today set another furious trading pace with leading stocks advancing 1 to 3 points to new highs for the recovery.

Trading was in enormous volume as the high speed ticker was behind practically all the forenoon. Big blocks poured out on the tape, the largest representing 19,500 shares of Packard.

Commodities were better, led by Cotton, but gains were small. Bonds were firm.

American Telephone was a strong leader. U. S. Steel was backward on profit-taking. Utilities were firm.

N. Y. Central rose nearly 2 points in heavy trading. Southern Pacific was another strong issue while the coal roads were higher. Gains of 1 to 2 points were scored by Lackawanna, Delaware & Hudson, Atchafalaya and Union Pacific.

Auburn ran up 3 points more on top of yesterday's spectacular 10-point jump. Motor stocks continued in demand and went to new highs on the move before turning down on profit-taking.

Johns-Manville was a strong specialty, going to a new 1932 high. Farm Implement shares were better on firmness in grains.

Finance Committee:
CLYDE B. HOUK
GAIL H. MORRISON
MATHEW A. RILEY

The committee report continues:
The above statement represents more work than is apparent in the mere statement itself. The original statements as presented to Council by the Tax Collector were made up of two general lists for each year, 1930 and 1931; one including all those property owning taxables who are delinquent in their occupation taxes for each of the above years for various reasons, as unemployed, left town, dependent, etc.; the second including all those property owners that are delinquent in both property and occupation taxes for each year. These respective lists were referred to the Finance Committee for investigation and report.

The first of the above lists was the one that the committee quickly realized would require the greatest amount of work. To pass on it in the form as presented was impossible, with that thought in mind it was divided into five groups, each group including all those for which exonerations were asked on the same cause or excuse.

The committee and authorized assistants then passed on each name of the respective sub list, using every available source of information in order to present as fair and equitable report as possible. This list alone contained approximately fifteen hundred names.

The second list, delinquent property owners, required equally as much attention, for it is here that the bulk of the delinquent taxes exist. Before either the 1930 or 1931 list could be accepted for filing, the committee had to be assured that the amount of delinquency against each property was correct. Consequently, each property owner was sent a statement showing his tax account, with a request that if it were in error, the committee be notified and the proper corrections made. Here again there were approximately nine hundred names.

When one considers the large number of names that the committee were asked to pass on, they are to be commended for the sacrifice of their time required to complete this work.

Hadassah Club Members Meet
ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 8.—The Hadassah Club of Ellwood City conducted its first fall meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Morris Solomon on Park avenue. Mrs. Max Groden, the president was in charge.

D. chairman; Mrs. Sam Wilkoff, Instant Welfare chairman; Mrs. Morris Solomon, Jewish National Fund chairman; Mrs. Adolph Lebowitz, Penny Luncheon Fund; Mrs. Ben Balter, Cultural chairman; Mrs. Edward Keller, Membership chairman; and Mrs. Leonard Silverblatt, Personal Interest chairman.

At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served and an interesting social period enjoyed.

TAX COLLECTOR REPLIES
"To The Editor and to the taxpayers of Ellwood City.
"Dear Sir:
"You understand the present economic conditions and now a very poor time to live up to the letter of the law. I have been very considerate with the people up to the present time. The readers of this paper probably have read the article that appeared in last evening's News. The articles of law stated, are all true. Article shown—Section 562 with note:
"Section 562—In all school districts of the second, third and fourth class in this commonwealth, all unpaid school taxes assessed and levied upon real property upon which there is no personal property owned, shall be certified by the tax collector to the secretary of the board of school directors, together with a proper description of the property upon which the same is levied on or before the first day of June each year. All delinquent school taxes so certified to the board of school directors, in any school district of the second, third or fourth class by any school tax collector shall be collected by said board as provided by law.
"Note:—The lists of uncollected property taxes presented for settlement to the board of school directors were not certified as required in the act and were therefore not acceptable to the board of school directors.
"My answer to this is the school board gave me a letter dated May 11th as follows:
"Letter From School Board
"We desire to advise you, however, that at a recent meeting of the board a resolution was adopted requesting that you do not set property for taxes at the present time on account of the economic conditions.
"Yours truly,
"(Signed) G. B. Hancher,
"Sec. of Ellwood Schools
"You can note by this that I was authorized not to distress any of the taxpayers. Now the board states that the only way I can make a settlement is by trying to sell all personal property on any real estate and to certify that where there is not enough personal property to be sold in order to satisfy the taxes, it shall be filed.
"According to my attorney here is a way that the board can make if they will. To avoid distressing the public and for me to get bond. I have always been taught that common sense is law, and there is no better time than now to use common sense.
"Thanking you kindly,
"T. A. E. McConghy,
"Tax Collector."

Report Over 1,000 Illegal Signs Are Taken Down On Lawrence County Highways

Illegal road signs in Lawrence county got short shrift from the State Highway Department in the past year. According to a statement from the department, over 1,000 such signs were taken down by the department and in this respect Lawrence county was one of the high counties of the state.

Westmoreland county was the worst offender, over 4,000 such signs being taken down by the highway department. Only four other counties had more than 1,000 removed and these four were Lawrence, Montgomery, Berks and Delaware counties. Montgomery and Delaware counties adjoin the City of Philadelphia which probably explains the number there. Berks has several good sized cities in it which explains that, but Lawrence county with 100,000 people in seems to have had more than its share of illegal signs.

The fact that the county is a border county and that so many main highways traverse the county is probably the reason for Lawrence county having so many. The total would show an average of approximately 59 for each of the seventeen townships of the county.

Under the law the State Highway Department is permitted to sign move without notice, any sign which is on the highway, which reduces road visibility, or which is misleading as to warnings. For example a huge "Stop" sign near the highway, followed by an advertisement for Splivins Liver Tonic or Joe Bink's Hot Dogs is considered illegal.

The care exercised by the State Highway Department in keeping the highways clear of such signs is an aid to the motorist.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

On your way downtown this morning, perhaps it escaped your attention that this is registration day, the first of three which will qualify the voters for the election on November 8. Not a bad idea to take advantage of the first day for the other two days may find you out of the city or sick.

Do you remember the registration of four years ago? Now there was a registration and a vote. So many people registered the first two days that the third found the registrars practically idle. It was probably the largest registration of voters ever in the city.

The Second Ward had but six precincts that year and believing that a lot of folks would be out of a vote a "Vote Early" campaign resulted. And did they vote early? You know the answer if you live in the Second.

At ten minutes to seven on the morning of the election there were lines of voters outside waiting for the polls to open and the lines were still yards long at noon. By two o'clock the majority of the voters were in and what a vote it was.

The old fourth precinct had 1182 voters registered for that election and 1162 of them voted which is somewhere close to a record. In the entire city there was close to 14,000 votes cast, a representative vote if there ever was one here.

Whether this year's registration will be as heavy as anybody's guess. At least there are more precincts to take care of the crowd if there is anything like the rush of four years ago.

If you haven't done it before, take a walk up along the Neshannock Creek bank on Croton avenue and see one of the finest pieces of civic work that has been done in this fair city for many a moon. The rripping of the creek bank is now completed up to the swimming dam and for the first time the creek bank looks like something.

For years the bank has looked as though a flock of rhinoceros (I wonder if that's the plural for that) had been playing leap frog. It was frayed and gouged and generally disreputable looking. It's a picture of the bridge to the dam and if the city had let the job out to contract it would have cost plenty sugar.

Whoever conceived the idea first has a vote of something or other coming. It stands out as the finest piece of work in the county today and that goes even when you consider the grade A job done on Gaston Park.

The time wasn't far off when the creek would have eaten its way under Croton avenue and some Crotonite walking to work would have been dropped into the creek some morning. It has reclaimed a wide strip of land along the bank which will make an ideal park spot for benches.

Elms and sycamores line the bank and a few benches in the summer months would make the spot an attractive one for the folks up that way. Not to mention the potential loss the undermining of Croton avenue would have meant.

One of the contributors to this column writes in and suggests that the fence along Croton avenue going up the hill should be repaired and just to be sure, we took a ride up there Wednesday. The contributor is right, the fence is as full of holes as a gunman's alibi and offers a swellgate place to roll down the hill.

Not that the Croton folks make a habit of falling through fence holes and rolling down hills, but some slippery morning would provide the opportunity of rivaling Steve Brody.

I'm still trying to figure out the reason for a winter season on a post card from Niagara Falls. Shows the American Falls frozen with the ice will not crack. And the styles, m'dear you should see them.

The women are dressed in those fulsome clothes of long ago when ankles were thought to be the property of men only. The coats they are wearing look like an exaggerated Mother Hubbard, while the men are topped in what my sainted grandmother would have described as a billycock hat.

This is strictly confidential and perhaps Hizzoner the Mayor may have been saving it for a surprise later on, but he seems to be considering some steps about the speeding on residential streets. Seems to have the idea that the streets of New Castle shouldn't be converted into a imitation of the Indianapolis speedway.

It's a great thing to have a car that will hit sixty without much effort but the trouble is that the car and then somebody may be in the way. As far as we're concerned, we're taking no chances of looking at the inside of one of those steel bedrooms back of the patrol barn.

Miners Remain Solid Against Wage Slashing

Coal Operators And Miners Will Resume Conference In New York

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—With the arrow pointing toward a protracted series of discussions over the controversy, the conference between the anthracite operators committee and a union committee of miners representatives will continue this afternoon to debate the proposal of the former for a wage reduction.

The miners, presided over by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America stood solid against any cutting of the wage scale.

The report that they considered a wage reduction inevitable and were ready to agree to a ten per cent slash was emphatically denied.

"I have learned to pay no attention to such rumors," said Lewis. "I hadn't heard of the matter before."

Kipling Knew The Secret

Here is what he said about "co-operation".

It ain't the guns nor armament. Nor the funds that they can pay. But the close co-operation. That makes them win the day. It ain't the individual. Nor the army as a whole. But the everlasting team work. Of every bloomin' soul.

Our success is the fruit of co-operative effort. The people who invest their savings here and those who have home loans—they are the institution.

All we earn, they get. Every benefit belongs to every member. Nobody is on the "inside" taking the cream of the profits.

That is why you get bigger returns when you invest your savings in this institution.

GARDNER

L. J. Schumaker, of Philadelphia, came to Gardner on Sunday to see his mother and sister. He is president of the American Cone and Pretzel Packing Company, and was on his way home from St. Louis, where the cone company has a plant. His work as an executive requires him to visit many large cities and to contact with many captains of industry and he brings the cheering news that business is on the upturn. Many factories and wholesale houses are opening their doors, and while there will be no sudden rush of good times for the retailer yet gradually the ice of depression will melt under the warm winds of returning prosperity. Mr. Schumaker thinks President Hoover is worthy of the loyal support of every citizen, and his noble silence under un-zen, and his noble silence under un-zen, and his noble silence under un-
